

Cutting the Edge: Consciousness and Technology at the Professional Seminar

by Leslie France

“This is the best one yet!” We hear that a lot during the Professional Seminars at The Monroe Institute. And it’s always true. They just keep getting better! This year was no exception.

TMI’s Local Chapter Network: A Consciousness Community in Action

by Clifford “Tip” Walker, Residential, Guest, & Outreach Trainer

The LCN’s mission is to establish independent local communities that provide free continuing support for program graduates as they integrate their TMI experiences and continue their exploration of consciousness. The LCN is also a point of contact for those wishing to learn more about TMI. Read More.

Reaching Out in Spain

by Enrique Ramos Corbacho, TMI Outreach Trainer

Robert Monroe had a great desire to offer Hemi-Sync® tools and technologies to everyone who wanted them, to “get it out there,” ... Today, many Outreach Trainers are extending Hemi-Sync benefits around the world through weekend excursion programs. Read More.
